SEEKER CHARIOTS OF SLAANESH

MACHINERIES OF BLISSFUL PAIN

As the straining steeds of the Seeker Chariot pull the chariot to full speed, swirling shapes sear the air with blinding streaks of the most vibrant and luxurious colours. The metal axles screech in a disharmony akin to the wailing of tormented souls, a terrible cacophony that ululates between the chanting of the Daemonettes and the lilting hoots of the Steeds. When the chariot finally crashes home, the Daemonettes dance from yoke to spar, laughing as their every disembowelling strike weaves bloody trails in the air.

EXALTED SEEKER CHARIOTS OF SLAANESH

Exalted Seeker Chariots are festooned with razor-sharp blades. Indeed, the entire rear axle is a giant whirling mass of flensing metal; anything that falls beneath the chariot's wheels is destined to emerge as a fine red mist. Though a victim's body may perish in a spectacular fashion, the unfortunate soul endures much longer. The chariot's ensorcelled blades hook deep into the spiritual remains of its victims, drawing them ever deeper into the maelstrom of metal. Exalted Chariots seek the foe where they are most numerous, ploughing into them with hysterical abandon.

HELLFLAYERS OF SLAANESH

SOUL-SLASHING BLADE ENGINES

The constant warfare and anarchy that defines the Realm of Chaos has ever worked against Slaanesh's pursuit of perfection by leaving battle-slain corpses littered across his sacred lands like the petals of a particularly repulsive plant. Strange machineries known as Hellflayers ride hither and yon across the alabaster plains, their reaping blades cutting and slicing the distaff flesh into small pieces that Slaanesh's otherworldly flora can easily devour.

Of course, with Daemonettes being the preening and selfish creatures they are, the menial work of feeding their lord's garden is considered a weighty chore. There are no emotions to gorge upon in such a task; no tortured and amplified sensations to sample. So it was that for a time, only those creatures who had displeased mighty Slaanesh were sent to crew his Hellflayers.

Yet Daemonettes are as wily as they are cruel, and it wasn't long before a particularly wilful pair of Slaanesh's handmaidens defied their master. During the Slaughter of Scintilla Prime the rebellious Daemonettes brought their Hellflayer not to the battle's aftermath, but to its gory height. Blades prepared for rotting corpses proved just as keen when set upon the living flesh of the Guardsmen sent to stop them. Severed heads and limbs flew like chaffed wheat; daemoniac ichor spattered across the Hellflayer's steeds and crew. Yet all this went unnoticed by the Daemonettes. They were gripped by a battle-rapture such as they had never known, for in their rampant pursuit of excess they had bound their own senses to the blades of their machines. Like all things sprung from Slaanesh's spiteful land, the metal from which the Hellflayer had been forged was deeply attuned the emotions of the living. As its blades sank into Imperial flesh, each victim's suffering was transmuted into a spiritual incense so intoxicating that it drove the Daemonettes into an impassioned frenzy.

When Slaanesh learnt what had transpired, he was much angered. Yet he was also pleased, for that lone Hellflayer had wrought much carnage – Slaanesh's armies have ever been weaker than those of his dark brothers, and anything to alter the balance was cause for delight. The Dark Prince decreed that to ride a Hellflayer would no longer be a punishment, but an honoured station of war. Ever since, Hellflayers have driven in the vanguard, blades mangling and maiming foes caught in their path. As for the two rebellious Daemonettes, Slaanesh transmuted them into unfeeling marble and set them on the far end of his causeway, their backs forever to the decadent glories they had once enjoyed. The accursed ones still stand as a silent reminder the Dark Prince's followers of what happens to those who flout his will.

FLAMERS OF TZEENTCH

BEARERS OF THE TRUE FIRE OF CHANGE

Flamers move by bumping and hopping around in a fashion that may even appear amusing to the unknowing observer. Laughter soon turns to panic, though, as the multicoloured Warp flames that dribble from each Flamer's outstretched arms roar to life like living blowtorches. The effects of the Fires of Change are as unpredictable as they are devastating, wreaking countless mutations in the blink of an eye. The wash of psychic flame can set a man's soul on fire or even regenerate his wounds, to the bafflement of all concerned. Episodes like this invariably cause much clapping and cheering from any Pink Horrors that witness them.

SCREAMERS OF TZEENTCH

TZEENTCH'S SOARING PREDATORS

Screamers of Tzeentch are magical creatures that swim through the Immaterium on currents of strong psychic energy, hunting in shoals for vulnerable spirits to prey upon. Drawn by the echo of mortal souls, Screamers often follow star vessels in the Warp, probing their psychic energy fields until a weakness is found. The Screamers will then stream through the gap in the shields, prise open the armoured skin with their lamprey-like teeth, and swarm through the breach to feast on the terrified souls inside. When they manifest in the material universe, Screamers take the form of bizarre disc-shaped creatures that skim through the air, slashing open throats and severing tendons with their horns and spiked tails. As their dying victims slump to the ground, their souls are released from mortal shackles – whereupon the Screamers will suddenly sweep around to consume the incorporeal morsel just as a raptor would seize upon a dove.

SHRIEKING SHANDREDHANS, GLORIOUS DOOMRIDERS, PALLID VANGUARDS

Seeker Chariots are not subtle creations. Indeed, their every excessive aspect draws the eye and lures the senses. As the straining steeds urge the chariot to full speed, swirling shapes sear the air with unholy hues and blinding streaks of the most vibrant and luxurious colour. The metal axles screech in a disharmony akin to the wailing of tormented souls, a terrible cacophony that ululates between the chanting of the Daemonettes and the lilting hoots of the snake-bodied Steeds. Indeed, to stand against such a machinery is not simply a contest of arms, but a struggle of wills that shakes the boundaries of sanity itself. When the chariot finally crashes home, the Daemonettes dance from yoke to spar, laughing as their every disembowelling strike weaves bloody trails in the air.

It is true that Seeker Chariots are liberally bedecked with all manner of slicing and shredding blades, but the Exalted Seeker Chariots take such lethal adornments to a whole new level. Indeed, the entire rear axle is nothing more or less than a giant whirling mass of flensing metal – anything that falls beneath the chariot's wheels is therefore destined to emerge behind as little more than a fine red mist. Though a victim's body may perish in a swift (if spectacular) fashion, the unfortunate soul endures much longer. The chariot's blades are laden with baleful enchantment and hook deep into the spiritual remain, drawing it ever deeper into the maelstrom of metal. A soul can last for hundreds, even thousands, of revolutions before its tortured ephemera breaks free to whatever awaits beyond, and its pain-wracked wails are sweet clarion notes to the Daemonettes above. Thus do the Exalted Chariots seek the foe where they are most numerous, for each tormented spirit screams in a voice all of its own; the more victims fall into the chariot's blades, the more delectable the resulting symphony of pain.

Heralds of Slaanesh often elect to ride into battle atop an Exalted Chariot. This is not only because it allows them to savour the agonies of the chariot's victims, but because the elevated perch ensures that the Herald can be easily seen by both vassal and foe – an important factor for a creature so prideful and preening. From atop the wheeled throne, the Herald can reach down to whisk intriguing specimens from the chariot's razored maw. Such is not an act of kindness. Indeed, enemies claimed in this manner soon start screaming to be returned to the embrace of the merciless blades below, if it means they will remain not a moment longer in the grasp of the doting Herald's cruel affections.

'At the chariot's onset, the foe broke and fled, turning their heels to its blades. At once, the contraption's cruel mistress ordered a halt, and for long moments the Daemon Engine stood still and silent. Only when the enemy steeled their nerve and regained formation was the chariot ordered forward once again, the Daemonettes atop it singing with wild joy.

This time, the enemy did not flee, but braced their arms and stood firm beneath their colours. To see such defiance in so bleak a place momentarily cheered my heavy heart. Fleeting I dared imagine that courage was the weapon that could defeat all the denizens of this ignoble realm, that honour and comradeship could overcome any terror and see the unholy banished forever. Then the chariot hit home against the ragged line, and my hopes were washed away in a gory spray of severed limbs.'

SCENTED HARVESTERS, DECADENT REAVERS, SHRED-CHAIN SISTERS

The Dark Prince of Chaos prides himself on the splendour of his decadent realm. Alas, the constant warfare that defines the Realm of Chaos has ever worked against Slaanesh's pursuit of perfection by leaving corpses littering his lands. Thus the Hellflayers ride across the plains, their blades cutting and slicing flesh into small pieces to be devoured by the otherworldly flora.

Of course, Daemonettes being the preening creatures they are, the menial work of tending their lord's garden is a weighty chore. There are no emotions to feed upon here; no tortured sensations to sample. Without such things, Daemonettes grow lethargic, their forms dissipating. # FLAMERS OF TZEENTCH

BURNING HORRORS, FLAME SPOUTERS, FLAMING WHIRLWINDS

Flamers are strange beings, even by standards of Daemons. Their semi-solid tubular bodies sprout gnashing faces and grimacing maws, whilst gangly arms splay into orifices that spatter raw magical essence. Though somewhat ungainly in their bizarre appearance, Flamers are capable of a fair turn of speed, expelling gaseous ichor through the 'skirt' at their base to bound and leap across the ground with mischievous gusto. The Flamer uses its blazing limbs to hurl bolts of magical flame at the foe. This is not fire in its truest sense, but a roiling cloud of Chaos energy. It does not burn, but warps and alters reality. Indeed, the victim of a Flamer's attack might even feel temporarily invigorated, before collapsing into a writhing puddle of mutated flesh. The Flamer is no less deadly in close combat as it can also focus its power to consume nearby enemies. As the warpflame crackles and hisses, smaller magical fires spill to the ground and take on the imitative form of a nearby object or person. With apparent glee and raucous laughter this eldritch marionette impersonates whatever occurs nearby, in a manner both mocking and disturbing. The Flamer usually ignores these little parodies of reality. Occasionally, it becomes irritated by the yowling mockery and obliterates the simulacrum before moving on in search of fresh prey.

On a score of 6, the unit immediately suffers D3 wounds with no armour saves allowed. However, on a score of 1, that unit gains the Regeneration (6+) special rule for the rest of the game – such is the fickle nature of Chaos! If the unit already has a Regeneration special rule, it instead gains +1 to all Regeneration saving throws for the remainder of the game.

SCREAMERS OF TZEENTCH

SKY-SHARKS OF TZEENTCH, SWOOPERS, SHRIEKING SKYRAYS

Screamers are glimmering sky-sharks that ride upon the Winds of Magic as a bird glides upon the breeze, driven by a powerful hunting instinct. In the Realm of Chaos, Screamers roam the tides of magic, preying upon the shadow-souls of mortal creatures, lone Chaos Furies and other magical ephemera. Indeed, once a pack of Screamers has the scent of a mortal's shadow-self, they pursue it ruthlessly through the Realm of Chaos. Once the Screamers catch their doomed prey it is torn to pieces in an eye blink, the gossamer shreds of its soul-stuff offered up as a gift to Tzeentch.

Nor do Screamers confine themselves to defenceless prey. If a Screamer's instincts tell it that a foe can be overwhelmed and consumed, it pounces without hesitation. Particularly bold shoals of Screamers have even been known to attack Greater Daemons, latching onto them with bristle-toothed maws and sucking the prey's magical life-force out through the wound.

In the mortal world, Screamers gather in shoals around battlefields, lured from the Realm of Chaos by emotion and carnage. Adapted as they are to hunting amongst otherworldly tides, Screamers might seem frail in the mortal realm, yet they are to be feared nonetheless. Festooned with fangs, horns and spurs, they dive on the enemy, their slashing blades tearing through the foe, before soaring skywards once more, blood and ichor trailing from their flanks.

SOULGRINDERS

IRON DOOMSTRIDERS, HARVESTERS OF SOULS, CLINKERSPAWN

When a Daemon's body is slain, he can surrender his true name to the Forge of Souls. The dark bargain thus sealed, the Daemon's crippled essence is bound to a mighty warpmetal hulk. Thus is he reborn a Soulgrinder.

No two Soulgrinders are exactly the same, but all are bizarre to look upon. The transformation mimics the Daemon's inner desires and then distort them just enough so that even it finds the results loathsome. Yet the change also grants might far beyond that a Daemon normally enjoys. A Soulgrinder's clanking tread shakes the ground with every step, and it is devilishly fast for a creature its size, able to scuttle swift as a horse's gallop, or even faster should the scent of battle touch its nostrils. Piston-driven legs thud home with sickening force, crushing to a paste those beneath.

Legend tells that if the Soulgrinder can garner sufficient mortal souls, the Forge of Souls frees the Daemon from his mechanical prison and returns him to the existence he once knew. Alas, as with all bargains struck within the Realm of Chaos, this is a debt not easily settled. Many a Soulgrinder has come within a single kill of clearing his debt, only to have ill-fortune see him destroyed, rather than his victim. Worse still, if vanquished, the Soulgrinder must sell itself to the Forge of Souls again or return to the oblivion it so dreads. Should a Daemon remain a Soulgrinder too long, his original identity begins to fade, subsumed into the machine that he serves. After a few millennia of the binding it is gone entirely. Thus can a Daemon come to be eternally damned, even as he seeks the same fate for mortals.

If the test is passed, nothing happens. If the test is failed, all other attacks the Soulgrinder makes against that model this turn hit automatically.

Implacable Advance: This model can move (not march) and still shoot any one of its weapons.

Natural Armour (4+): The Soulgrinder has an armour save of 4+.

Daemonbone Claw: If a Soulgrinder has a daemonbone claw it can exchange all of its Attacks for a single special Attack – this is declared after the Caught by the Iron Claw rules is resolved. This Attack is resolved at Strength 10 and has the Multiple Wounds (D6) special rule.

Phlegm Bombardment: This shooting attack is fired according to the rules for a stone thrower. If a misfire is rolled on the artillery dice, the Soulgrinder suffers a wound with no saves of any kind allowed instead of rolling on the chart.

Warp Gaze: This shooting attack is fired according to the rules for a bolt thrower.
